

Staten Island Multiple Listing Service Expands Its Remine Product Offering to Include SSO Dashboard

SIMLS service expands its partnership with Remine to include SSO Dashboard, which will join the current member offering of Remine Pro and Docs+ Transaction Management

McLean, Va., (April 28, 2022) — Remine, a leading real estate technology company, announced today that Staten Island Multiple Listing Service (SIMLS) will expand its partnership with Remine to include SSO Dashboard, joining the current product offering of Remine Pro and Docs+ Transaction Management.

SIMLS will offer the upgraded product as a complimentary member benefit to their more than 2,500 valued subscribers in the Staten Island area.

The Remine SSO Dashboard will bring a new efficient login process for members and provide the MLS with administrative tools that allow their association and broker partners to add their business partners to their custom created dashboards. Brokers will gain the ability to customize their dashboard layout, color, logos, and add custom SSO brokerage products at no additional cost.

“SIMLS is excited to expand our partnership with Remine to include SSO Dashboard as a member benefit,” said Sandy Krueger, CEO of SIMLS. “We find Remine to be dedicated to creating products that meet the needs of real estate professionals today and beyond.”

Frederick Townes, CEO of Remine, explained, “The addition of SSO Dashboard allows SIMLS members to customize their MLS experiences by taking advantage of our open APIs in addition to creating strategic workflows with their current member benefits, Remine Pro and Docs+. Enhancing the partnership with SIMLS to include three of our four flagship products furthers Remine’s mission to modernize the digital real estate journey.”
